

LE ZITELLE

VALDOBBIADENE

PROSECCO SUPERIORE DOCG

Brut

The Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore DOCG Le Zitelle Brut is a sparkling wine made with the grapes from the Valdobbiadene hills, a World Heritage Site Denomination.

|                        |                                                                                                                      |
|------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Grape variety          | glera 85% minimum                                                                                                    |
| Area of origin         | Valdobbiadene DOCG hills                                                                                             |
| Climate                | fresh mediterranean                                                                                                  |
| Vinification           | white-wine fermentation with a 70% yield                                                                             |
| Sparkling process      | charmat method                                                                                                       |
| Colour                 | straw yellow                                                                                                         |
| Perlage                | fine, rich and persistent                                                                                            |
| Bouquet                | fresh flowers with fruity notes of apple, pear and peach                                                             |
| Flavour                | the perfect combination of softness, sapidity and acidity make this a balanced wine that is persistent on the palate |
| Overall acidity        | 5,5 g/l                                                                                                              |
| Residual sugar content | 7 g/l                                                                                                                |
| Alcohol content        | 11,5% vol.                                                                                                           |
| Serving temperature    | 6°-8° C                                                                                                              |

